

JOIN THE DEPARTMENT OF BLACK STUDIES

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

- 30 credits (10 courses)
 - BLS 101: Introduction to Black Studies
 - BLS 480: Seminar in Black Studies
 - 8 additional courses from the three thematic tracks

When you major in Black Studies, your courses, research, and collaboration with fellow students will prepare you for a career in education, public service, health care, business, law, the arts, and more, as well as for advanced study towards a PhD or master's degree in related fields. You'll gain a rich understanding of Black history and culture, social, economic, and political development, and connections across the African Diaspora.

MINOR REQUIREMENTS

- 18 credits (6 courses)
 - BLS 101: Introduction to Black Studies
 - 5 additional courses from the three thematic tracks

A minor in Black Studies can be paired with any major, enhancing your major field with a rich understanding of global Black communities. Our minors major in Biology, Health Policy and Management, Political Science, Accountancy, English, Women's & Gender Studies, Psychology, Public & Community Service, Sociology, and Studio Art!
